Barge Supplies Fish to Bird Farm

HERMOSA BEACH—Henry T. Staats III was the guest of Capt. J. M. Andersen on the Olympic barge yesterday. Staats is connected with the Whittier Ornithological Society, an organization which fosters the propagation of rare birds. Staats took home two sacks of fish, mostly mackerel, to feed the hundreds of ducks which are housed on the bird farm at present.

Capt. Andersen reports that halibut, yellowtail and barracuda are starting to come in. Many big halibut were taken in this week, all on live bait, which is furnished free.

Wheeler and Woolsey Are Riot of Fun At Torrance Next Week

A South-of-the-Border resort, where men are caballeros and girls are señoritas, is pictured with all of its romantic glamour in "Girl Crazy," RKO-Radio's all-star merry melange of mirth and melody, which comes to the Torrance Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 12, 13 and 14.

This home of the clicking castanets, marimba bands, and gay fandangoes, shares atmospheric appeal with a western dude ranch, as the background for the hilarious adventures of Bert Wheeler, Eddie Woolsey, Eddie Quillan, Milti Green, Dorothy Lee, Arline Judge, Kitty Kelly, Lita Chevret, Stanley Fields and 50 beauties.

Based upon the musical hit which ran for more than a year on Broadway, "Girl Crazy" tells the story of a city youth who goes west in a whoopee way by turning his father's cattle ranch into a dude resort and bringing his bright light pals out to keep the rattlesnakes and cacti company. Quillan carries the boy role with Wheeler and Woolsey sparkers of the range gunmen. The musical hits are all original compositions of George Gershwin, famous creator of modern melodies. William Selter directed.

Woman Sues For Damages In Crash

For injuries received in a traffic accident near the city limits of El Segundo, Mary J. Jennings today had on file in Los Angeles superior court, a damage action seeking $50,500.

Charles Day and A. T. Davidson are made defendants in the action. The accident, which happened June 7, 1931, was attributed in the complaint to negligence on the part of the defendants.

Taylor Convicted In Justice Court On Theft Charges

Harry F. Taylor, who was given a hearing Monday in the justice court on charges of petty theft preferred by E. A. Venable of Waveria, was found guilty after a number of witnesses had been examined and was fined $250 with an alternate sentence of 90 days in the county jail. In default of payment a commitment was issued, and Taylor was returned to jail from where he had been brought into court. He had been incarcerated awaiting action on other charges arising in Calabasas and Artesia.

By agreement of counsel, Frank Forrester, appearing for Taylor and Donald D. Avery, deputy district attorney, for the prosecution, the charges which had originally been of obtaining property under false pretense, were reduced to petty theft. The case grew out of the disposal of a quantity of baled hay obtained from Venable some months ago.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelton of Portola Apartments are Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jennings of Dunsmuir, California.

Forestry Dept. Continues Work In Alondra Park

Alondra park, bordering the Torrance city limits on the north, today was turned over to the county forestry department in order that that division might continue with the planting of additional trees and beautification program. Until this order of the board of supervisors, at the recommendation of Spence Turner, county forester and fire warden, the park has been under the jurisdiction of the recreation, camps and playgrounds department.

Shrubs and trees will be planted as rapidly as possible, according to the plans being drawn up by the county regional planning commission. The park was acquired through an assessment district, about 2 years ago. It is bounded on the south by Riverside-Redondo boulevard, on the east by Cypress on the west by Prairie, and on the north by Center street. It is one mile east and west, narrow at the Cypress end but about nine-tenths of a mile wide at Prairie.

When the development plan has been worked out it will again be turned back to the recreation department and used for that purpose. Appropriation was allowed by the county to plant half the park, but later the allocation was increased to cover planting for the entire area.

The park is in a strategic location, being just west of the city of Gardena and adjoins Hawthorne on the north. County officials believe it will be a popular place when it is fully developed.

Bluebirds Win In Hot Finish 10-Inning Tilt

In a fast and furious finish that had the fans pop-eyed and loco during the last three frames of a ten-inning game, the Torrance Bluebirds gathered themselves a handful of olives Tuesday night and put the Olive Branches away by a score of 5 to 3.

Up to the eighth, the Bluebirds went scoreless. Olive nicked two runs, one in the second on errors, and a homer by Carpenter in the sixth. It looked like a rainy night for the Birds, but instead of tucking their heads under their wings they tore loose with a few base hits and started a rally. Only one run resulted but it was enough to get the fans roaring for blood. Sweet, pinch-hitting for Olive, uncorked a homer in the ninth, making the count 3-1. Urged on by the faithful in the stands, the Bluebirds came up in their half with another determined rush and knotted the count.

Wotta ballgame! Hargis set the Olives down in rapid order in the tenth. The first man up in the Birds' half got to first and went to second on Hargis neat sacrifice bunt. Sackett got a smash in the face from a ball that earned off his bat and waded wildly at the first ball pitched. Half blinded by the blow he dabbed at his horn eye and wiped away the gathering moisture in time to meet one on the nose and send it far out to right for a homer sending in a runner ahead of him. In a spectacular finish that had the spectators whooping for joy the game was laid away on ice.

Tonight the Bluebirds meet the Long Beach Sales team in a non-league game at the home grounds and go to Anaheim Friday night. Next Tuesday, Huntington Beach comes here for the first time in the second round. Attendance at the games is picking up and the fans are getting a big two-bits worth of clean, fast ball playing. Proceeds from the league games are donated to charity after the small expense due the organization is deducted.

Drill Team Puts On the Work For New Italian Post

On Friday, June 3rd, the officers and drill team of the Bert S. Crossland Post 170 initiated 39 members and installed the officers by the Dante Post No. 449, the new all-Italian Post of the American Legion. The ceremony was held at the Garibaldi hall on Custel avenue, Los Angeles.

It was quite an auspicious occasion with galaxy of radio stars and civic notables. Among the distinguished guests present were the Hon. George S. Rochester, California State Senator; District Attorney Baron Fitts; City Councilman Snapper Ingram and a great many superior and municipal court judges including Judge Georgia Bullock, Burnell, Haas, Schmidt and others. Just before the initiation the crack rifle team of the Los Angeles Police Post, under the direction of Comrade Jack Guyot gave an amazing exhibition.

The officers of the Bert S. Crossland Post taking part were Commander Louis Deinger, Acting Past Commander L. C. Doan, First Vice-Commander Clinton Thaxter, Second Vice Commander James Scott, Chaplain James R. Wilkes, Adjutant Carl Marsteller and Finance Officer Robert Deinger.

This is the fifth time the ritualistic team of the Bert S. Crossland post has appeared in the bay district. They have inaugurated Alamitos Bay, Artesia, Dante, and initiated members in San Pedro and Bell posts.

University Cuts Price Football Games Next Fall

LOS ANGELES—Price reductions for football tickets amounting in some instances to as much as 50 per cent and averaging more than 20 per cent were announced today by the University of Southern California for the coming season.

For the seven home games of the Trojans, the season ticket price will be reduced from $19 to $14. Low priced sections will be available for all games so that fans who do not require preferred seats may see all local contests for a total of $9.

Following a meeting of the university's ticket committee, Chairman Arnold Eddy announced the following scale of prices:

University of Utah—reserved, $1.50; general admission, $1.
Washington State—reserved, $1.50; general admission, $1 ($2 for all sections last year).
Oregon State—reserved, $1.50; general admission, $1 ($2 for all last year).
Loyola—reserved and general admission, $1.
California—all reserved, $3 and $2.
Oregon—reserved, $1.50; general admission, $1 ($2 for all last year).
Notre Dame—all reserved, $4 and $2 ($5 for all seats last year at South Bend and $5 and $3 in 1930 in Los Angeles).

Ticket applications will be mailed out to those who have been public season ticket holders on August 1. Chairman Eddy announced. New subscribers may receive blanks upon application to the general manager's office at the university.

Many Nations to Be Represented Olympic Games

Nearly 4,000 Athletes Coming to Los Angeles for Trial of Speed and Skill

SACRAMENTO, (U.P.)—Thirty-five nations, with from 3000 to 4000 athletes, trainers and coaches, will be represented at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles from July 30 to August 11 this year.

For 16 days and nights the contests will be in progress, according to Verling Kersey, director of the state department of education. The program will comprise 135 distinct events including the following:

Athletics, gymnastics, boxing, wrestling, weight-lifting, fencing, rowing, swimming, equestrian sports, modern pentathlon, road cycling, yachting, field hockey, water polo, rifle and pistol shooting and Olympic fine arts.

"An Olympic village is to be erected to house the teams of all countries entered," said Kersey, "at a cost of approximately a half million dollars. The capacity of the Olympic stadium has been enlarged to seat 105,000 persons."

The Olympic Games of antiquity were held at Olympia, a sacred spot near the western coast of Greece. The first recorded games were in 776 B. C. In the ancient days of Greece there were 293 Olympiads, one every 4 years, and they ceased in the fourth century upon the decree of Emperor Theodosius of Rome.

"In those days the season for the games was determined by the moon," Kersey said. "While the games were in progress, armies were withdrawn from the field by mutual consent. There was a cessation of hostilities. No armed men were allowed in Olympia or vicinity. Victors had their likenesses carved in stone or marble."

The modern revival of the Olympic Games was due to a Frenchman, Baron Pierre de Coubertin, who, on November 25, 1892, proposed such a plan. The first of the modern Olympiads was held in Athens in April, 1896, and have been celebrated every 4 years since then, except in 1904 and 1916.

Other Olympiads were held as follows: Paris, 1900; St. Louis, 1904 (in connection with World Fair); Athens (tenth anniversary) 1906; London, 1908; Stockholm, 1912; Antwerp, 1920; Paris, 1924; and Amsterdam, 1928. The 1916 games were to have been held in Berlin, but were halted on account of the World war.

Invisible Rays Guard Convicts

CHESTER, Pa.—(U.P.)—Invisible rays serve to prevent escapes from Broad Meadow Farm, new Delaware county prison near here.

The rays are cast by phosphoric cell lights set up in the rear of the new prison building. They are so designed that an alarm is sounded when a person passes through the area in which the rays operate.

Electricity plays other important parts in the arrangements of the new prison.

In the tower are eight powerful floodlights illuminating the grounds and the exterior section with the brightness of daylight. On the corners of the prison building are 32 other flood lights for illumination inside the wall.

The lighting system is so arranged that it can be adjusted to burn brilliantly or changed to dim glow at will of the operator. An emergency system, operated by storage batteries, provides light automatically and immediately in case of failure of the regular service.

The large doors at the prison rear are operated by electricity, and cooking, baking and refrigeration in the kitchen are done with the same power source.

Approve Plans For Narbonne Extension

LONITA—Working plans for the construction of a 16-unit addition to the main building at Narbonne high school, corner Walnut and Pomelo streets, Lonita, were approved by the board of education at its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon, June 2. The project will cost $84,000.

Facing Redondo-Wilmington boulevard, the addition will contain two music rooms, sewing room, dining room for teachers, two art rooms, and two classrooms. There will also be an addition to the gymnasium, providing new locker-rooms, showers and rest rooms, and which will add a second floor to this structure.

Mrs. Willis S. Brooks was a Los Angeles visitor Tuesday.
